

Bobby Wuertz | Agricultural Land Advisor

Bobby Wuertz is an agricultural land advisor in the Phoenix office of Land Advisors Organization. Bobby comes from a multi generation farm family in Coolidge, Arizona. He pairs his life-long involvement with agricultural production and his real estate background to close successful land transactions for investors, farm families, and agricultural investment funds. He is a licensed real estate agent in Arizona and California.

Prior to LAO, Bobby was a principle in a 4,000-acre farm operation, worked for Arizona Drip Systems and was involved in a cotton marketing cooperative that represented farmers in California, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas.

Bobby is an executive board member of the Pinal 40 Organization, which supports local youth and promotes agriculture education. He is a member of the Ag100 council, a graduate of Project CENTRL, and he graduated from the University of Arizona with a degree in agriculture economics.
