

Tony Lang | Designated Broker

Anthony Lang is a designated broker with more than 30 years' experience in the Las Vegas market. With access to Land Advisors Organization's advanced technology and comprehensive nationwide network of buyers and sellers, Anthony offers clients exceptional service.

Anthony launched his real estate career in Phoenix before moving to Las Vegas in 1989, where he founded Landcor Properties. The company specialized in the brokerage of raw land to builders and investors.

He is a strong supporter of Candlelighters of Nevada, an organization that helps support the families of children affected by cancer. He is also the founder of U.S. Paragliding Team, a Nevada non-profit corporation that raises money to help the U.S. Paragliding Team participate in various events around the globe.

Anthony attended the W. P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University and has held a Nevada Real Estate license since 1989.