Wesley Campbell | Advisor

Wesley Campbell (Wes) is an Advisor with Land Advisors Organization's Metropolitan Phoenix office and works directly with the firm's Founder and CEO Greg Vogel. He currently provides advisory and project management services on the evolution of master-planned community (MPC) projects in multiple states including Arizona, Utah, and Washington. Wes oversees team management, initial proposal development for the landowner or developer and is also responsible for the due diligent process, development of the project offering package for prospective buyers and executing the marketing plan through to closing of the land sale.

In addition, Wes manages site selection and acquisitions and has facilitated the disposition of approximately $100M+ in land over the past 12-months.

Prior to his role as an advisor, Wes supported Land Advisors Organization's Resort Division and their efforts to market and sell resort communities in Mexico, the Bahamas, and key areas of the United States. Wes received his degree in finance from Arizona State University.
