Trey Davis | Advisor

Trey Davis joined Land Advisors in the Research Department in May of 2019 while he was finishing his sophomore year at Arizona State University. In his time with the company, Trey has gone from research intern to serving as the Assistant Manager of the Research Department and has assisted in tasks for various different teams around our organization.

After spending two years building a deep knowledge of the Arizona market and earning his bachelor's degree, Trey joined the team as our second Pinal County Specialist along with Kirk P. McCarville, CCIM. Kirk and Trey are deeply involved in the rapidly developing industrial market in Pinal County.

Prior to his work at Land Advisors, Trey worked as a site selection and acquisition associate at SimonCRE while acquiring his Arizona Real Estate and Contractors licenses.
